✚ Architecture

To fetch meta data of a book we take input from the client and request Google BooksAPI then we show that response to client in the intuitive way. Process flow diagram is shown below.

1. Client requesting server

2. Server sending response